THUGS ACTED 'LIKE A PACK OF ANIMALS'

THREE thugs who broke the arm of a bridegroom out on his stag night have been jailed after they were described as behaving like a pack of wild animals.

The victim of the unprovoked attack, Johnathan Channell (26), had to wear a plaster cast on his wedding day and during his honeymoon.

Dean McAteer (27), of Woodcroft, Harlow, Jay Bown (23), of Purford Green, Harlow, and Jamie Lynch (26), of Church End, Harlow, pleaded guilty to malicious wounding.

The prosecution offered no evidence against a fourth defendant – Nathan Dunn (27), of Purford Green, Harlow – on a charge of affray and the judge formally entered a not guilty verdict.

Chelmsford Crown Court was told the gang pounced after one of them started picking on Mr Channell while they were travelling on a late-night train from London in July last year.

Prosecutor John Donnelly said McAteer made comments about Mr Channell's shirt and Bown said: "We beat up people wearing a shirt like that."

Mr Channell, who with his father, two brothers and future father-in-law, ignored the comment and he and McAteer shook hands, but McAteer was then unpleasant to one female passenger and made crude sexual comments to another.

Mr Channell told him to leave her alone, at which point Bown put his hands into Mr Channell's face. As the mood became increasingly aggressive, Lynch punched Mr Channell hard, knocking him back and he ended up pinned to a seat.

Lynch then hit him with seven punches and McAteer and Bown joined in, the court heard.

The three defendants got out of the train at Harlow Town and Mr Channell followed

First sign of winter

WHILE many parts of the country shivered beneath a blanket of snow this week, Harlow remained largely unaffected by the cold snap. Although the town woke up to a light dusting on Tuesday morning, only one primary school closed and emergency services reported few weather-related incidents.

But with light snow showers and sub-zero temperatures forecast for today (Thursday) and Saturday, residents are again being urged to wrap up warm and take extra care negotiating icy footpaths and roads.

WIN a pair of tickets to see A Flea In Her Ear

THIS week we are giving you the chance to win one of five pairs of tickets to A Flea In Her Ear, a high speed comedy of errors starring Tom Hollander.

Eccentric and hilarious, Georges Feydeau's much-loved comedy mixes madness, mayhem, fun and frivolity.

When the beautiful wife of Victor Chandeise suspects him of having an affair, she enlists the help of her dearest friend to entrap him. Their plan to entice him to a rendezvous at the Hotel Coq d'Or spectacularly misfires and chaos ensues.

Set in the decadent surroundings of Belle Epoque Paris, Feydeau's quintessential farce promises to be an exhilarating evening of mistaken identities and comic disaster.

Originally performed by The National Theatre at The Old Vic in 1966, John Mortimer's translation of A Flea in Her Ear starred Albert Finney and was later revived in 1989 starring Jim Broadbent.

For your chance to win a pair of tickets to a performance of A Flea In

Council considering cuts to staff hours

CASH-strapped Harlow Council could cut working hours and slash mileage allowances for all staff in a bid to save money ahead of Government cuts to local authority grants.

With the authority set to have its budget slashed by up to 15 per cent in the next financial year, plans to reduce the working week by half an hour and cut mileage allowance from 65p per mile to 40p are currently being considered.

The proposed changes would affect all council employees – including part-time staff – and could potentially save the authority up to £225,000 a year.

In a message sent out to staff this week, chief executive Malcolm Morley said the proposal would be the equivalent of a 1.3 per cent pay cut for all staff

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

but would minimise redundancies.

"Heads of service have been looking at all areas of expenditure to ensure where possible that services continue in accordance with the council's priorities and to minimise redundancies as far as possible," he wrote.

"I know that these proposals would be very difficult for colleagues but they would, if implemented, undoubtedly help safeguard some jobs and services."

The proposals have angered trade unionists, who argue that significant savings could be made by cutting the salaries of senior staff. David Forman, of Harlow Trades Union Council, told the Star: "Why should lower paid staff sacrifice part of their wages when the chief executive and other management staff are still on extravagant salaries?"

"The chief executive earns well over £100,000 a year, a ridiculously high amount when you consider how much management support he has in running a town of just 79,000 people.

"Our view is that cuts should start from the top."

The council is yet to consult with trade union representatives on the proposals but has invited staff to comment on the suggested cutbacks.

Council leader Andrew Johnson said: "We know this is going to be difficult for our staff, but we also know they are realists and are aware of the unprecedented financial pressures our council faces.

"I believe it is right to suggest sharing the financial pain among the largest number rather than face the alternative, which is seeing colleagues leave as part of further redundancies.

"This is a financially responsible council and moves like this will ensure we keep targeting our budgets on the frontline services our residents expect. We are also looking at making savings on councillors' allowances."

Jobs under threat in youth services review

A CENTRE offering career guidance to young people in Harlow could be axed after a report proposed cuts in the number of youth service staff.

Essex County Council education chief Stephen Castle has recommended ending the authority's Connexions service, including the One Stop Shop based at Occasio House in Harlow.

The proposal is part of the council's plan for a radical shake-up of youth services which would save the authority £7m a year, mainly by axing the Connexions service's 180 staff.

Staff received letters at the weekend informing them of the proposals.

One worker at the One Stop Shop, who did not want to be named, said: "We are very angry. We do a fantastic job with young people in the town and offer help with all sorts of things from finding a job to applying for benefits and housing issues.

"It seems they want to cut the service without considering who might offer help to these people.

"Staff heard about it at the weekend after receiving a letter from the council. But the letter doesn't explain much; we've been finding out more through the media."

Connexions was set up in 2003 and provides impartial advice to 13-19-year-olds in and out of school and to vulnerable people.

Councillor Castle said the council needed to find savings following the Government's spending review.

"This has resulted in the need to urgently review the way we deliver our youth services to enable us to continue to provide valued services in a more targeted and focused way," he said.

"I appreciate this is an unsettling time but I am committed to keeping staff fully aware of any discussions and will communicate any decisions as soon as they are made."

A decision on the future direction of the service will be made at a meeting of the council's cabinet members on Tuesday.

them. As he dialled 999 he was struck a hard blow to the back of his head.

The men later handed themselves into police when they heard they were being sought.

Barristers representing the defendants said they remembered little about the incident which they accepted was disgraceful.

Jailing all three for four months, Judge Anthony Goldstaub said they were described by witnesses as behaving like a pack of animals.

He added: "It ought to be safe to travel on our transport system at night, except as everybody who uses the system knows there is a sense of drunken menace on late trains from Liverpool Street. Some people are frightened to use them. That this should be so in a civilised country like ours is appalling.

"If I put myself in the position of someone on that train seeing what happened, I would be astonished by a court passing anything but an immediate custodial sentence."

However, he said he had reduced the length of sentence because they were basically decent family men who had acted out of character.

Shop owner wins a top fashion industry award

A FASHION shop owner from Harlow has scooped a top industry prize at an awards ceremony in London.

Lewis Tweddell (26), of Little Pynchons, won the Best New Business category at the Drapers Awards held at the Grosvenor House Hotel.

Lewis, who opened his shop Lewis Yates in Billericay two years ago, received the award from former Strictly Come Dancing star and radio presenter Lisa Snowdon.

Afterwards he said: "I am honoured, slightly shocked and absolutely thrilled at receiving this award. It means so much to me and my team."

Lewis started his own business when the boutique he was working in went into liquidation. He reopened it selling handpicked brands he believes offer a unique feel to everyday fashion.

In addition, Lewis offers customers a range of services including same-style tailoring, personal shopping experiences and style advice.

Drug dealer had cocaine wrapped in lottery tickets

By COURT REPORTER
star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A DRUG dealer who wrapped cocaine in lottery tickets has been jailed for 30 months.

Allen Swatkins (34), of Brockles Mead, Harlow, pleaded guilty to charges of supplying cocaine and possessing the drug with intent to supply.

Lesli Sternberg, prosecuting at Chelmsford Crown Court, said Swatkins was seen by police at a pub car park in Harlow handing two wraps of cocaine to another man.

"Text exchanges showing he was involved in the supply of drugs were found on his mobile phone and he had £140 cash on him", said Ms Sternberg. A search of his home uncovered six further wraps of cocaine in lottery tickets.

"There was also drug paraphernalia including scales, pre-cut lottery tickets, cutting agents and tools including a Stanley knife, a credit card and £1,370 cash," Ms Sternberg told the court.

Neil Fitzgibbon, representing Swatkins, said in mitigation his client loaned money and sold drugs to raise money to feed his own addiction.

Mr Fitzgibbon said Swatkins was relieved that he had been arrested as years of taking drugs had taken its toll on his health. "He collapsed before this incident but now he's drug-free and there's been a clear change around."

Mr Fitzgibbon said Swatkins was now working as a driver and was willing to undergo drug testing if he were to avoid a jail sentence. "If you adopt a merciful stance that would allow him to continue his drug treatment," he told the judge.

But jailing Swatkins for 30 months, Judge Christopher Ball told him he had been deeply involved in a pyramid of supply of cocaine.

"Courts have to give a clear message about drug dealing," said the judge. "If you do it there's a price to be paid. People don't want a society where every second person is a cocaine addict.

"The supply of cocaine and possession with intent to supply is a matter that must attract a custodial sentence."

The judge also made an order that Swatkins' car should be forfeited.

Green scheme bears fruit for Kier

THE company that carries out maintenance work for Harlow Council has won a green award for a project that has dramatically reduced the amount of waste sent to landfill sites.

Kier Harlow was presented with a Green Apple Environmental Award at a ceremony held at the House of Commons.

The company's Waste Not, Want Not scheme was introduced in 2008 with the aim of changing its approach to the environment. A new waste transfer system was introduced at the Kier Harlow depot along with an interceptor that stopped pollution and harmful chemicals seeping into the environment.

Following the changes the company reduced the amount of waste it sent to landfill sites from 23,000 tonnes to just 6,000 tonnes this year.

Kier Harlow's regional environmental manager Doug Goodyer, who collected the award, said: "We are very proud of our achievement. It's been a lengthy process to get up and running but it is now proving very efficient."

"We saw £100,000 of savings in 2009 by not sending waste to landfill."

Council backs green space campaign

RESIDENTS are being given the chance to nominate green spaces in Harlow for special protection.

Harlow Council has signed up to the Queen Elizabeth II Fields Challenge, a campaign to safeguard fields and open spaces around the country.

Timed to coincide with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the 2012 Olympics, it aims to create a legacy for future generations to play, walk or simply enjoy green spaces.

Nominated sites must meet a number of requirements – including ownership, minimum size and written evidence that sport, play and recreation is permitted – in order to be considered.

Tony Hall, chairman of Harlow Council's environment policy working group, said: "This is a great opportunity to create a lasting legacy for Harlow people beyond 2012."

"Our town had greenery designed into it. I hope we get some imaginative nominations that will add to legacy and build on it."

Residents can nominate a site by logging on to the official website at www.qefields.com or by emailing a suggestion to the council at qe2fieldschallenge@harlow.gov.uk.

The final decision will rest with Fields in Trust, an independent charity formed in 1925 to protect and improve outdoor space for sport, play and recreation.

Harlow North backers push housing proposals

ARGUMENTS in support of a major housing development on countryside to the north of Harlow have been submitted to neighbouring East Herts Council.

The group behind the Harlow North proposals has submitted representations to the authority making the case for building on the Green Belt land as part of a consultation on the future of the district.

North Harlow Joint Venture said this week the project would allow the new homes to be built alongside investment in local transport, education and health facilities.

The representations do not provide detailed plans but claim that land is the most appropriate location to meet housing requirements in East Herts.

More detailed proposals are expected to follow from the joint venture group.

Mary Parsons, a spokeswoman for the group, said: "East Herts Council needs to find space for 8,500 new homes and North Harlow presents a sustainable alternative to greenfield development around Sawbridgeworth, Bishop's Stortford, Ware, Hertford and Buntingford or major extensions to Welwyn and Stevenage.

"The local councils of East Hertfordshire and Harlow are now establishing their Local Development Frameworks and we look forward to working with them in the future."

"We will continue to keep the community updated on our progress."

Driver reverses into £15k statue

By DAN PHILLIPS
daniel.phillips@hertsexnews.co.uk

SPECIALIST restorers have been called in to repair one of Harlow's iconic sculptures after it was damaged in a hit-and-run incident.

The three-foot bronze by world-renowned artist Gerda Rubenstein was toppled off its brick stand when the driver of a 4x4 vehicle reversed into it.

The figure of a young woman, entitled Julia and estimated to be worth more than £15,000, was damaged by the fall and the stand will need to be rebuilt.

It has been taken to a firm of specialist fine art restorers and is being kept in a secure location. The repair bill is expected to run into hundreds of pounds but as the sculpture is insured Harlow Council will be submitting a claim for the cost.

The driver of the vehicle that struck the sculpture did not stop but a council employee at a nearby sheltered housing complex saw the incident and took a note of the registration number. The matter has been reported to police.

The statue was installed in Sewell Harris Close in 1995 and forms part of Harlow's collection of public works of art acquired and commissioned for the town by the council, Harlow Art Trust and other organisations since the 1950s.

Joel Charles, chairman of the council's community and citizenship policy working group, said: "Harlow is known as a Sculpture Town and we are very proud of our public sculptures."

"It seems someone's careless driving has resulted in damage to the sculpture. The car has been identified and the council is making enquiries."

"We are committed to keeping public sculptures in public places as they help enrich people's environment. Luckily these accidents are few and far between."

"We hope it won't be long until Julia is back outside."

Road closed while police probe accident

A STRETCH of Southern Way, Harlow, was closed for more than eight hours on Friday while police investigated a crash that left two people injured.

A red Ford Escort left the road between Bush Fair and Staple Tye at around 2am and careered through trees before ending up in a ditch.

Two people – a man and a woman – were found at the scene by emergency services. The woman had suffered serious head injuries and both were taken to Princess Alexandra Hospital.

Police believe a third person had been in the vehicle when the accident occurred but had left before emergency services arrived at the scene.

The road was reopened midway through the morning after the car was recovered. No other vehicles were thought to be involved.

Police are asking any witnesses to call the Chigwell road policing unit on 0300 333 44 44.

Hospital streamlines urgent care services

THE Harlow NHS Walk-in Centre which treats people with minor injuries and illnesses is to be moved into Princess Alexandra Hospital in a bid to cut A&E waiting times.

In order to make space, the hospital's pre-assessment service will be transferred to the walk-in centre's former home just 100 yards away in Wych Elm.

Patients arriving in A&E will first be assessed by a community nurse who will decide if they should see their own GP, be treated by staff in the walk-in centre or be taken through to A&E.

Jane Herbert, the hospital's interim chief executive, said: "This new integrated urgent care centre will reduce duplication, minimise confusion among the public, make better use of the valuable use of the health care workers and help ensure that acute hospital services focus on the work that only they can do."

By SOPHIE WARNER
star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

The move, which takes place on Sunday, is part of a joint project between the hospital, the West Essex NHS Trust and West Essex Community Health Services.

Shelia Bremmer, chief executive of NHS West Essex, said: "These changes represent a positive improvement in urgent care services with no reduction in the range and quality of services currently delivered."

"They will help to ensure people get the right care in the right place at the right time."

Vince McCabe, managing director of WECHS, added: "The new centre will provide a single point of entry to the public, enabling us to direct them to the most appropriate service first time."

"People will then be assessed and provided with the support, advice or treatment they require."

Partnership reports fewer incidents of job behaviour

SIX incidents of egg-throwing and three of misuse of fireworks were reported to Harlow police on Halloween and bonfire night. However, there were no serious injuries on either night and low numbers of complaints about anti-social behaviour.

As a result, the Safer Harlow Partnership has hailed its 'Operation: Bang Out of Order' campaign, which ran throughout the period, a success.

Trading standards officers carried out checks to see if any shops were selling fireworks to people but none failed.

Partnership chairman Malcolm Morley said: "Harlow's partnership approach has a good track record in reducing anti-social behaviour during the Halloween and firework period."

"This is a good example of local organisations doing their bit to ensure this period is as safe and nuisance-free as possible for residents."

"We have seen a low number of reported incidents this year and I'm sure stopping fireworks getting into the hands of young people has reduced the risk of serious injuries happening."

Fair delivers cash boost for new maternity suite

A FUN-packed fair raised more than £1,500 towards the construction of a new specialist delivery suite at Princess Alexandra Hospital.

Scores of people flocked to the event held in the Harlow hospital's social club, browsing Christmas stalls and enjoying cake-decorating workshops and a bouncy castle. There was also a car wash and book sale.

The hospital hopes to raise a total of £40,000 to construct and equip a second specialist delivery suite suitable for mums-to-be who have had a problem-free pregnancy and are considered to be at low risk of labour complications.

Claire Parker, midwife and birthing unit manager, said: "Due to its popularity, around 50 per cent of women in labour who have requested the existing room in their birthing plan are unfortunately unable to use the facilities upon arrival as the room is already in use."

"We want to raise as much money as possible so we can start offering more women quicker and easier birthing in this relaxing setting."

Teenager who mugged pensioner is sentenced to two years detention

A TEENAGER who mugged a pensioner and then took a gang of youths to the home of a witness in a bid to intimidate him has been sentenced to two years of detention.

The defendant, who is 17 but cannot be named for legal reasons, denied but was convicted of robbing the 77-year-old woman in Southern Way, Harlow, as she was on her way to a keep-fit class. He was also found guilty of intimidating a 15-year-old witness.

The teenager was also accused of mugging another woman and attempting to rob an 84-year-old but the jury cleared him on both charges.

Describing his behaviour as sickening and despicable, Judge Karen Walden-Smith told him: "It is of enormous disappointment to me to see a young man appearing in court denying something you knew you did and particularly involving an elderly lady who had the trauma of having to relive what happened.

"She was entitled to be cared for and protected by society. You are an intelligent young man whose life is currently being wasted and you don't need to waste it. Change your life."

The court heard that after the robbery the defendant threatened a 15-year-old who gave a statement to police about his involvement in the crime, branding the youth "a grass" and warning: "I'm going to kill you and petrol bomb your house."

The mother of the intimidated youth had described arriving home to a huge number of youngsters gathered on a green nearby and said her son had "sounded scared and worried".

Frances Ridout, appearing for the defendant, said in mitigation he had a "turbulent, horrific childhood" during which he was exposed to domestic violence, alcohol and drugs before his father died and he was left homeless.

Join Basil on the Fun Run Sunday

MEET Basil, one of the latest recruits to sign up for the St Clare Hospice Santa Fun Run.

Basil's owner, Teresa Warren is a volunteer at St Clare and she jumped at the chance to combine their normal Sunday walk with a chance to raise funds for the hospice.

"I always take Basil for a long walk on Sunday and when I saw the hospice was doing its Santa Fun Run I thought it would be a great opportunity to help support them whilst walking Basil," said Teresa.

"He loves dressing up as well, so this really is the perfect event for him."

She added: "I have been volunteering for about a year and a half and I think it's a truly wonderful place."

The run, which is being supported by the Star, takes place on Sunday, December 12. It follows a 4km route in and around Harlow Town Park and the emphasis is on having a laugh.

All adults taking part will be given a full Santa suit complete with beard and belt to wear while children will receive a Santa hat.

"Well over 100 people have already signed up for the run and their Santa suits and hats are being posted out but there is still time for more people to sign up," said St Clare's events fundraiser Tracy Stratford.

"You don't have to be able to run to take part. Last year people walked, took their dogs around the course and even pushed their little ones in buggies round!"

As long as you enjoy yourself and get in the festive spirit for the hospice it doesn't matter.

"There is just over a week to go until the event so you need to sign up fast to get your free suit or hat!"

To join Basil and all the others who have registered to take part, visit the hospice website at www.stclarehospice.org.uk and click on the homepage link, or call (01279) 773750. Registration costs £15 for adults (16 and over) and £5 for children. Children under 15 years old must sign up with an adult.

All entries must be received by Thursday, December 9.

Youth facing jail sentence for knife attack

A YOUNG man who slashed the neck of a 19-year-old with a kitchen knife has been warned that he could be jailed for the attack.

Ryan Kinggate (18), from Harlow, pleaded guilty at Chelmsford Crown Court on Monday to assaulting Gary Edmunds causing actual bodily harm and to possessing a bladed point in Brockles Mead on July 11, 2009.

The court was told Kinggate, who was 17 at the time of the incident, had been part of a group of four young men who struck the victim without provocation.

Kinggate later returned to the scene of the attack and swung a knife towards the victim's neck, causing a five-inch slash. However, the court was told the cut was not deep and soon healed.

Jodie Hitchcock, representing Kinggate, said in mitigation, said her client had behavioural problems and was not able to read or write.

Although he had been studying to become a painter and decorator he found the academic side of the work too much and was now an interior sprayer.

Judge Stara Staite, who made an order preventing publication of the defendant's full address, adjourned sentence until December 17 for reports.

"I want full options on sentencing open to me," she told him. "Dangerous behaviour has to be sentenced to get the message across that it will not be tolerated."

Gym threatening court action over membership row

ANGRY: Jobless Graham Duddy has been threatened with court action after trying to terminate his gym membership

AN unemployed research scientist has accused a Harlow health club of flouting its own policy after he was told he could not cancel his membership early despite being made redundant.

Graham Duddy (39) said he informed Esporta, in The Water Gardens, just three days after he was laid off by pharmaceutical giant GlaxoSmithKline.

The firm's website states that termination of the contract may be allowed if the member has a medical condition, moves home or is made redundant.

But Mr Duddy, of Priors Court, Sawbridgeworth, was told he would have to pay £39-per-month for the standard notice period of three months – and was threatened with court action if he refused.

"They didn't give me any explanation as to why they would not terminate the contract," he told the Star. "They simply said I should feel lucky that I'm just being charged for three months."

"There is no good reason why they couldn't be good about it. They just want to make as much money as they can."

"There is no way I'm going to pay what they're asking. They

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk will have to go to court to get it from me."

Mr Duddy lost his job in early October and shortly afterwards took his redundancy letter into the gym as proof. However, despite another visit and numerous calls to Esporta over the course of the past few weeks he could not get an answer.

"Given the nature of my work it is very unlikely I'll find another job in the region," he said. "I was told by Esporta they would take that on board and get back to me. But they just stonewalled me."

"Apart from bad management and customer services, their delaying tactics earned them an extra month's membership fees from me."

Mr Duddy has since cancelled his direct debit to Esporta but within days of missing a payment the firm wrote to him stating his payments were in arrears and he would be fined an extra £20. A second letter threatened court action and further charges.

The Star asked Esporta to comment on the claims but it had not responded by the time we went to press.

Council's gritting teams working round the clock

WITH weather forecasters predicting more snow, Essex County Council is prioritising the county's main roads for gritting vehicles.

These include 'A' and 'B' roads, access routes for emergency services, rural link roads and major public transport routes.

Councillor Norman Hume, the county council's cabinet member for highways and transportation, said: "Our dedicated winter service is continuing to work round the clock to cope with the icy conditions."

Motorists are advised to travel only if necessary but for those who must, information on which roads will be gritted can be found by visiting www.essex.gov.uk/winter.

As of yesterday (Wednesday), waste and recycling collections were operating as normal. However, householders are advised to check Harlow Council's website at www.harlow.gov.uk for any changes.

Bus users in Harlow are also advised to check with operators before they travel.

Jamie is spurred on to help others

By DAN PHILLIPS
daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A VOLUNTEER working with a community foundation set up by Tottenham Hotspur FC has received an award for his outstanding contribution and commitment to the cause.

Jamie Heaton (24), of Bush Fair, Harlow, was presented with the award at the annual Torch Trophy Trust sports awards which recognise voluntary work for in clubs and community initiatives.

For the past two-and-half years Jamie has been working in the equalities and inclusion department of the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, which was set up to provide sports, health, training and education programmes within the community. He has dedicated more than 500 hours of his time to the cause, volunteering on projects that include sessions within special schools and building the confidence of youngsters with autism.

Jamie, pictured right with Spurs' club captain Ledley King at a recent community event, was motivated to help others after suffering a head injury when he was younger which left him with a learning disability.

He has successfully completed coaching courses in football, cricket and basketball as well as completing his Community Sports Leader Award.

Gareth Jones, who works closely with Jamie at the foundation, said: "He acts as a role model to the young people he works with as he demonstrates what can be achieved within sport, regardless of a disability."

"He has made, and continues to make, a huge difference to many young people across a range of foundation projects. "Jamie adds value to the inclusive projects that he is part of and he has been able to demonstrate how important it is to be inclusive both in and out of sports sessions."

He added: "We are all thrilled with the progress that Jamie has made over the last two and a half years. He has worked with a number of foundation staff and has been mentored through different areas of work."

The Torch Trophy Trust awards were presented by the Duke of Gloucester in the presence of trust president Sir Bobby Charlton.

Lord Lieutenant at meeting of integration support group

THE Lord Lieutenant of Essex, Lord Petre, and Harlow MP Robert Halfon were among more than 50 people who attended the annual meeting of Integration Support Service. Founded in September 2004 by a group of refugees and migrant workers living in Harlow, it aims to make a positive contribution to the community by improving the lives of immigrant communities and the indigenous population through education, support services and welfare support. Mr Halfon, whose involvement with the group started three years ago when he visited its office in Wych Elm, told the audience: "That we are living today in a diverse society is something to celebrate. "ISS is a living embodiment of what this society is all about. ISS are social entrepreneurs and with each client they help, humanity and dignity is always at the forefront."

The meeting was also addressed by Terry Kirkby, corporate liaison officer for Pitney Bowes.

In five years the organisation has grown rapidly and has now plans to expand its work across Essex and Hertfordshire.

Its aim is to support a successful integration of all migrants, refugees, black and minority ethnic community members and groups.

Hospices share cash from company's ball

A LOCAL firm of funeral directors has raised £20,000 for St Clare Hospice at a ball to celebrate the company's 20th year.

Daniel Robinson and Sons, which has an office in Wych Elm, Harlow, raised £40,000 on the night. The money was divided between St Clare and the Isabel Hospice at Welwyn Garden City. A charity auction was held during the ball, which also included a champagne reception and a variety of entertainment. Among the lots was a 1970 Football World Cup shirt signed by Brazilian legend Pele which was won with a bid of £2,500.

Sue Upton, St Clare's director of fundraising, said: "Daniel Robinson and Sons has supported the hospice for many years and we are incredibly grateful to managing director Gary Neill and his team. We simply could not exist without such loyal support."

Spirit of Christmas

A NEW 'shop' has appeared in the Harvey Centre to remind shoppers of the true meaning of Christmas.

Heart 4 Harlow will stay open during the festive period. It includes a life-size nativity scene created by Rev Tim Voltzenlogel and the Church Langley Parish Church.

Money will be collected at the shop to support Harlow charities while food will be collected for the Harlow Foodbank, which provides emergency food rations for those in need.

Morning prayers will be held on Mondays at 10am, Tuesdays and Wednesdays at 9am, Thursdays 7am and Saturdays at 9am. On Thursday, December 16 there will be carol singing from 7pm.

There is also a reflection and prayer room available for anyone to use.

Church bazaar

A CHRISTMAS bazaar will be held on Saturday at the Church of the Assumption in Mulberry Green, Old Harlow.

The bazaar, which runs from 1-3pm, is being organised by the church and Harlow Lions Club. There will be a tombola, children's games, stalls selling handmade jewellery and cards, a white elephant stall, a guess the weight of the cake competition and a grand draw with prizes including Willow Farm tickets and a meal for two at Zenz restaurant.

HARLOW COLLEGE: More than 400 students took part in a road safety event which gave many of them the chance to get behind the wheel of a car for the first time.

They received advice on driving and staying safe on the roads as well as more practical tips on buying a secondhand car and learning to drive.

Elite Driving School provided eight cars and driving instructors so that the students could try their hand at driving in a designated area of the college car park.

The Road Runners event was organised by Essex County Council road safety officers to coincide with National Road Safety Awareness Week and involved police, the fire service and trading standards officers.

Pauline Leggott, the college's head of student support, said: "This is a really dynamic way to get across these vital safety messages and to try to prevent our students becoming road traffic accident statistics in the future."

CHURCHGATE PRIMARY: Pupils and parents were treated to their very own winter wonderland with a sparkle and ice-themed evening.

The Christmas fair held at the school in Hobbs Cross Road included an ice rink and fireworks display while Santa took time off from his busy schedule to pay a visit. The event was organised by the school's parent teacher association, the Friends of Churchgate Primary.

A spokesperson for the organisers said: "All the kids had such a fantastic time at the event. Santa's grotto was extremely popular; it was packed out."

"Everyone who came seemed to be happy and it was full up with people all evening."

STEWARDS: Seven pupils from the school have been praised after they addressed the annual conference of Essex headteachers.

The youngsters from Years 9, 10 and 11 prepared and gave a talk based on their own educational experiences at the Parnall Road school and how it had supported them as individuals on their educational journey.

India Brabbs, Aphra Boittier, Lottie Shelton, Jack Baldwin, Jed Smith, Richard Brandon and Amandla Mvitho were joined by former pupil Alie Sankoh.

Afterwards, conference organiser and former head Philip Bell said: "The pupils did Stewards School, and particularly themselves, proud. "In just over 45 minutes they touched and captured the hearts and minds of Essex headteachers who do want to make a difference."

Stewards head Rhonda Murthar congratulated the pupils and said she was proud of their achievements which many adults would have found daunting.

Recording the highs and lows of The Square

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertssexnews.co.uk

A HARLOW resident is writing about the history of the town's premier live music venue. However, this is history with a difference.

To those who know it, The Square is a veritable bastion of modern musical taste with a list of rock and pop glitterati to perform there as long as Mr Tickle's arm.

Now Wesley Grant, of Fold Croft, is hoping to write a history of the Fourth Avenue venue that has a personal take rather than one filled with facts, figures, times and dates.

"This isn't a history of who's played, although that is a big part of it. It's a personal history from the point of view of the bands, punters and staff who've made the venue what it is today," he said.

"It will be a history of how a small town venue has affected the lives and careers of so many people.

"Many acts have played The Square on their way to success, just as many people on stage and off have made hugely successful careers starting there.

"What I want is stories of nights at The Square, whether you've been there once or over a thousand times."

So it's over to you, Nostalgia fans. Were you in the audience on the night Coldplay signed to a major record label? Can you recall Blur playing under their early moniker Seymour or the set by comedian Phill Jupitus? Did you see Snow Patrol before they were the next big thing?

Said Wesley: "How has The Square affected you in your life? Did you play in a band there? Did you meet someone you fell in love with? Did you go to rock school? Were you part of the Save The Square campaign? Did you burst with pride when you saw your son or daughter play on stage for the first time?

"Whatever your experiences – good or bad – then I'd love to hear from you."

Wesley is also keen to track down any old flyers or photos from the venue that readers are willing to share with him.

Anyone who can help can email Wesley at lastnightrockclubsavedmylife@hotmail.co.uk.

Alternatively, you can write to him at Wesley Grant c/o The Square, Fourth Avenue, Harlow, Essex, CM20 1DW.

● If you have any memories or pictures that you would like to share with our readers, send them to Nostalgia, Harlow Star, 6 West Gate, Harlow, CM20 1JW or email daniel.phillips@hertssexnews.co.uk.

NOSTALGIA UPDATE: Peterswood School

THEY say every picture tells a story, but it's not often one photograph tells hundreds.

And yet when this picture landed on the Nostalgia desk, it was apparent this was the case.

The photograph was sent in by former Peterswood School headmaster Benson Hazlewood, pictured in the centre.

We cannot fit in the whole picture, which dates back to 1980, because it features all 17 classes at the school at the time and is just too wide.

Mr Hazlewood, who was headmaster from 1972-1981, sent in the photo in response to our appeal ahead of the school's closure at the end of the year.

He told Nostalgia: "When I arrived the previous head had suffered two heart attacks and retired and the deputy head was acting headteacher for 18 months.

"I had to get a handle on the situation and eventually the school began to do very well and it grew to 17 classes. It developed so fast that three classes were housed in the nearby Church of England school." Mr Hazlewood went on to lecture in Waltham Forest and then teach in Hackney before returning to do supply teaching in Harlow at various schools. "My heart is still in Peterswood," he said.

Come the New Year, Peterswood Infants School will be merged with Paringdon Junior to create a new school called Longwood Primary.

The school in Paringdon Road is appealing for information, stories or photographs from former pupils or anyone connected with the school for its project work leading up to the closure.

Fears over buses

Government plans to privatise bus services could leave parts of Harlow without a service in the evenings and at weekends. Councillors expressed fears for the town's public transport at a special seminar.

Hospital trauma

Cancer patients from Harlow and Epping face the trauma of staying over night in hostels if the closure of a hospital unit goes ahead. The 400 local patients have been attending the North Middlesex Hospital in Edmonton.

School setback

Hopes of saving the Latton Bush School buildings for community use are fading. Campaigners received a massive setback when an Essex County Council committee voted to submit a planning application to use the land for housing.

Howitt's Commons bid

Harlow councillor Richard Howitt has been selected as prospective Parliamentary candidate for Billericay. Mr Howitt, chairman of the council's planning and town development committee, will take on sitting Tory MP Harvey Proctor.

New nightclub a blazing success

SCORCH nightclub, in the former H2O premises at Millars One in Southmill Road, Bishop's Stortford, which has been trading for seven weeks, is already making a name as one of the best venues around.

The ambition of operator Stort Leisure Ltd, fronted by Nick Harmston and Richard Pharo, who have invested £1m in refurbishing the premises, is to create a "local club for local people".

"Our aim to appeal as a local club for local people does not just include our customer base, but also our contractors and suppliers," said Nick. "We've tried as much as possible to use local builders, electricians, plumbers, metalwork engineers, printers and sign-writers in order to keep the money in Bishop's Stortford and surrounding towns in Hertfordshire."

Since its grand launch on October 14, Scorch has seen more than 1,500 people through its doors each week, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. A Halloween ball for under-18s welcomed nearly 400 young partygoers to the exciting new venue.

"We've noticed a need for providing something for the youngsters to do in their school holidays and decided to host under-18 parties during school holidays," said Richard.

The club will be running under-18s parties over the Christmas holidays on Wed Dec 22 and 29, from 7pm to 11pm. Parents can buy tickets through the Scorch website, using a secure online facility, or on the door.

Scorch has launched a new weekly Monday night party featuring DJ Robbie Dee, who hosted the infamous polysexual 'glam' nights in the old Chicago Rock Café. The club is also hosting the 'End of an Era' party on Fri Dec 10 for modified car owners' mag Max Power.

Scorch boasts some of the finest DJs on rotation, such as Kiss 100's Steve Smart and Jez Welham, Pied Piper, MC DT, Luck & Neat, Kenzie and DJ Richie Don, a tour DJ for Ministry of Sound, MTV's

Pimp My Ride UK and Max Power, where he recently returned from Las Vegas supporting them at the SEMA car show.

The door supervisors, employed through Regency Security Services of Braintree, have worked closely with Herts police to prevent crime and disorder inside and outside the club. Stort Leisure operates a zero tolerance policy to under-age drinking and drugs to ensure a safe clubbing experience. Scorch is available for private hire, Christmas parties, birthdays, hen and stag nights. DURING the early 1970s Britain was in the grip of strikes and mass unemployment and on the verge of an economic maelstrom.

It was during that turbulent period, when many people put self interest before the general good that one Harlow couple's trip to London was to end with an act of selflessness which has, in the decades since, helped tens of thousands of homeless people.

As they made their way back home after a night on the town, they could not help but be affected by the despair they saw on the city streets.

So on Christmas Eve they decided to take sandwiches and hot drinks to the capital and hand them out to the down-and-outs who had nowhere else to turn.

Friends saw what the couple were doing and were compelled to get involved. It became a regular thing and before long the Harlow Chocolate Run was born.

Every Sunday since then a small army of volunteers pack themselves into a car or minibus laden with food and drink and head for Victoria.

Today Britain is being battered by yet another economic crisis and so the commitment of the Chocolate Run volunteers is as important as ever.

Mick Granger is chairman of the Harlow Chocolate Run Haven, the charity which for a decade has also run a homeless shelter at the playbarn in Abercrombie Way over the Christmas period.

A band of about 20 volunteers take it in turns on the Chocolate Run while up to 80 people get involved in running the shelter.

"The amount of people who have put their time in is absolutely amazing," said Mick. "Nobody gets any money

Christmas shelter a haven for homeless

HELPING THE HOMELESS: Mick and Selma Granger (photo: HAR0698339)

out of volunteering but people have got empathy for the homeless.

"Harlow has got a tremendous community spirit. If something goes wrong people stick together. It's not like London where nobody wants to know.

"The shelter is a fantastic place and the people who have helped out feel wonderful. Many have been with us since the very beginning and each year becomes like a reunion.

"There is a special atmosphere there. If you were new you would never be able to tell who was a guest and who was a volunteer. And we never have any trouble."

Despite the years, the reasons for people ending up homeless seem to stay the same.

"People don't realise what actually happens to people who find themselves on the streets," said Mick. "Many of them have had the most awful things happen to them in the past or perhaps in their childhoods.

"One man's family were killed one Christmas in a road accident. He lost his way after that and from there became homeless. There are girls who are abused by their fathers and so they leave home.

"I would say only about 15 per cent actually want to be homeless. The other 85 are there because of what's happened to them.

"We've seen them all – dentists, lecturers, students, people from all backgrounds who've lost their families or their job. Somehow they wind up on the streets."

The shelter opens round the clock for 10 days from December 23 to January 1, offering hot food and drink, a place to sleep and some entertainment. It was set up by a Chocolate Run volunteer at a time when many thought homelessness was not a problem in Harlow.

"There is no homeless community as such in Harlow," said Mick's wife Selma, who became involved after helping set up Harlow Accommodation Project back in the mid 1990s. "In London they tend to stick together in a group to help protect each other, but in Harlow they didn't want anyone to know that they're homeless so they tended to go off on their own.

"And the authorities didn't want to acknowledge that these people existed either. They said it would be a waste of time. It was an effort just to make people understand there was a problem."

Guests at the shelter can come and go as they please. There are only a few rules such as no drink or drugs. Sleeping bags are provided.

This year organisers are hoping to get a donation of screens so guests can have more privacy.

"There's no place like home but it's as close as can be," said Mick. "Even the home-alone can come down and join in the fun. Nobody needs to be on their own this Christmas."

● There will be a meeting in the Maidroom Room at the Great Parndon Community Centre at 7.30pm tonight (Thursday) for anyone who would like to volunteer there time to help out this Christmas.

Housing plan would be a disaster for Old Harlow

SIR, I was among more than 250 people who attended the meeting at St John's ARC to make our views known on the proposed development north of Gilden Way, which would entail building 1,200 houses on this sensitive site (Star, November 25).

The meeting was called by Harlow Civic Society and chaired by Stan Newens. Tony Evans spoke on the proposed development and members of other organisations spoke from the floor. There was no disagreement. Everyone who spoke agreed that this scheme would be a disaster for Old Harlow.

More than 1,000 new houses would mean at least 1,200 more cars which, considering the existing traffic problems in the area at peak times, would mean gridlock. Add to this the problems of drainage on a sloping site, the unexplored archaeological remains

PRIZE LETTER OF THE WEEK

The Star has teamed up with Sheaffer, the prestige pen maker, to offer our correspondents the chance to win a stylish Sheaffer 300 worth almost £30. The writer of the Letter of the Week, as chosen by the editor, will win this quality Sheaffer roller ball pen. For further information go to www.sheaffer.com.

which would be built over, the proximity of the well-loved Gibberd Garden and Harlowbury Chapel, the oldest building in Harlow, and there seems to be no case for the development other than commercial interests.

It was inspiring to be part of such a large, united and well-informed crowd. Some might accuse us of NIMBYism but, as Mr Newens said, Harlow has seen development at Churchgate Street, New Hall and Gateway over past decades and there must be some quiet green areas for people to walk in.

Even if the scheme goes ahead, the waiting list for social housing in Harlow will not be reduced. The developers themselves have said that the properties are intended to be sold to existing home owners – incomers who will also be outgoers, commuting to London and Cambridge from Harlow Mill. The meeting agreed to continue the campaign and to defend our position in court if necessary, which would mean paying for a barrister. Let the fight begin.

Sell land back to a farmer

SIR, I note with great interest and disappointment that the matter of Gilden Way Proposed Development has cropped up again.

I have lived in the area for 45 years and have lost count of the number of times this matter has been resurrected.

If the fight is successful, does it mean that the "considerable amount of money" collected in buckets will ensure no development takes place for evermore or for just a couple of years when the process starts all over again?

I would like to think the 49 hectare site will no longer be owned by Barratt, Taylor Wimpey and Persimmon but re-sold to a farmer who will continue to farm the land. Some hope!

Michael A Cox
Hart Road, Old Harlow

New homes made the town

SIR, I just cannot believe the attitude towards the proposed new build on farmland near Old Harlow. People must have very short memories when it comes to how the majority of their homes came into being.

Harlow New Town was built by the Harlow Development Corporation (New Towns Commission) on land partly compulsorily purchased in order that we could have somewhere to live. In the early 1950s I was more than grateful that I and my family, having come from living with my mother in Tottenham, had our first home.

Had this not taken place, there would have been no Harlow New Town.

What I would say is that the new homes must be built to a better standard than the recent new builds and built in the traditional way with bricks and blocks and not timber, which allows sound to penetrate from room to room and even next door.

At least 50 per cent of the new homes must be affordable homes for genuine candidates on the council housing list. The roads must be adequate in width for the modern household which, irrespective if they are "green" cars or conventional cars, will have at least two and, if they have visitors, will need somewhere to park.

Charles Jackson
Rectory Wood, Harlow

Join our card campaign

SIR, As we prepare for the festive season, I would ask readers of the Star to spare a minute or two to take part in Amnesty International's greetings card campaign.

It won't take long to write a card to someone whose basic human rights are being denied but it can have a great impact. It can cheer up a person who is being abused for speaking out or encourage someone defending their human rights.

For example, it could make a real difference to someone like Cheikh El-Khiari from Morocco, who was sentenced to three years in prison for attempting to fight corruption in his country. Or the fearless group Women of Zimbabwe Arise who are regularly beaten and arrested when they take part in peaceful protests to demand basic rights.

Prison conditions have improved, threats and intimidation have ceased and people have been released from prison after cards and letters were sent. It's heartening to hear how we can make such a difference simply by sending a card.

You can find out more by visiting the website at www.amnesty.org.uk/gcc or, even better, come along for a free cuppa and cake at Bishop's Stortford library this Saturday (December 4) where we shall have cards all ready for you to sign. We look forward to seeing you there.

Anne Neuhaus

Rogue registrations

SIR, Is Harlow becoming the home of chav car registrations where owners move numbers and letters on their number plates to try to spell names etc?

As my job involves a lot of driving around Harlow and surrounding areas and I am amazed at the amount I see on a daily basis. It is not just boy racers and ladettes but also middle-aged men and women who seem to have caught the bug.

I wonder how many of these realise that it is illegal and can invalidate your insurance as your car will not have a valid MOT. You can also be fined up to £1,000 for this offence.

The police should be cracking down on this as there is a more sinister reason that some drivers do this and that is to confuse roadside automatic number plate recognition equipment.

Rare spider still living in the UK

A SNEAKY spider feared extinct in the UK has been caught on camera for the first time after a new colony of the rare species was discovered.

Experts had given up hope of ever spotting the Rosser's Sac spider again but the creepy-crawly has been re-discovered safe and well.

The elusive creature had not been seen in Britain for 10 years but a colony has now been discovered at Chippenham Fen in nearby Cambridgeshire.

The light brown spider was first discovered in the 1950s but the draining of the fenlands and changing farming practices following the Second World War left its preferred wetland habitat under threat.

Despite searches conducted in recent years by both the British Arachnological Society and charity Buglife, the species had not been spotted since 2000 and fears were growing that it had died out in the UK.

The timid creatures spend most of their days wrapped up in a folded leaf, hunting their prey rather than spinning a web.

Buglife chief executive Matt Shardlow told reporters: "This spider is globally endangered.

"It's fantastic that it's still creeping around in the British countryside and we're ecstatic that people can now see what it looks like for the first time in history.

"If we want future generations to be able to see the live animal, we will need to take great care of the tiny remaining fragments of wild wetlands in this country and reinstate large areas of lost fen."

Harlow Council Tenant and Leaseholder Service Charges Consultation

Following a decision made by a Leasehold Valuation Tribunal earlier this year Harlow Council is looking to review the way that they divide their service charges and recharge them to tenants and leaseholders. The Council would like the final decision on the way forward to be made following as wide as possible consultation with tenants and leaseholders.

As of the 1st December 2010 Harlow Council gives notice that it intends to consult with its tenants and leaseholders on apportionment methods in the allocation of service charges. Information on this consultation and questionnaire can be found on the Council's website. The closing date for responses is 31st December 2010. The Council is sending out a questionnaire to 10% of its tenants and leaseholders and to all Housing Service Improvement Team Members and any tenants or leaseholders who are on the Housing Sounding Board.

Any tenant or leaseholder can have their say by completing an online questionnaire at www.harlow.gov.uk, or by visiting Contact Harlow to collect a form. For further information please contact the Home Ownership Section on (01279) 446424.

Launch Pad contenders seek votes

FOUR more contenders are pitching for your support in their bid to be crowned Launch Pad champion.

Launch Pad is an innovative competition giving budding entrepreneurs the chance to turn their business dreams into reality. It is the brainchild of local businessman Robert Ellice who, having grown up and worked in the area, wanted to provide a platform for local people to showcase their business ideas and have the opportunity to turn them into reality.

The project was brought to life by Bryan Hunt of property firm Clarke Hillyer and supported by the Star. Earlier this year potential entrepreneurs were encouraged to submit their ideas for consideration by a panel of local business experts.

Following a phenomenal response, the judging panel has now whittled the original entrants down to a shortlist of 20 who will face a public vote that will help to determine the eventual winner.

All you have to do to take part is log on to the Launch Pad website at www.launchpad-harlow.org and watch the contenders' video presentations before you cast your vote. It's as simple as that!

The idea with the most public votes each week will win a place in the grand final, where the expert panel will decide upon a worthy winner.

● Last week's winner was Mark Roythorne, UK9 Environmental Ltd.

Sarah Brockwell
sarahBee marketing

Kelly Marie Howard
Number Bands

Roger Williams
Cuddly Bear Wear

Lucy Caswell
Thalia Jewellery Designs

Founded this year on a budget of just £250, sarahBee marketing is the brainchild of Sarah Brockwell, a qualified marketer with 20 years' experience.

Sarah's redundancy and subsequent unemployment drove her to set up her own marketing business. With many companies in the market already, Sarah wanted to offer a specialist service to a defined market sector. She chose the local SME (small, medium and start-up businesses) market. After completing her research which included an online survey to 10,000 Essex SMEs, she discovered that no marketing company really understood the unique requirements of a local SME.

sarahBee marketing offers affordable, no-nonsense marketing and PR services to SMEs in Essex. There are currently 60,000 SMEs in Essex.

sarahBee marketing has already been featured on BBC Essex radio and in local newspapers.

Sarah built her own website and designed her own logo and marketing collateral.

I have developed a wrist band for children to prevent them getting lost.

Our number bands are attached to a child's lower arm. They will have emergency contact details printed on it.

If the child gets lost, all they have to do is find a helper who will be able to immediately contact the parent/carer.

We aim to protect children while they are away from their homes. This could be at a theme park or even a school trip.

The bands are almost impossible to remove unless cut with scissors, making them very secure.

They can be branded with organisational names or logo's i.e. the name of a school with the responsible teacher's number pre-printed.

Cuddly Bear Wear are the providers of a high-quality service which specialises in the recycling of children's schoolwear and other special occasion clothing to fit cuddly toys and dolls.

Cuddly Bear Wear was formed to merchandise the concept of combining recycling and design in order to create same likeness fashionwear to fit soft cuddly toys.

The idea was born out of a charity event held at a local school that involved children bringing in a teddy bear for the day in order to raise money for charity. I decided to make an identical school uniform out of my daughter's unused uniform to fit her favourite teddy bear.

When the teachers, parents and children saw the bear wearing the same likeness school uniform I was inundated with many enquiries. It was at that point I recognised the potential of my product plus the opportunity and gap in the market in recycling unwanted school and special occasion clothing to provide a tailor-made service for cuddly toys and dolls.

Silver handmade affirmation jewellery incorporating crystals to help in self development and belief.

We all could benefit from time to time to be reminded to believe in ourselves, to have faith in our own abilities or that we are all capable of miracles. Thalia Jewellery Designs incorporates certain crystals into handmade silver pendants. For example, a silver pendant saying 'Love' can have a pretty pink rose quartz crystal which represents unconditional love and infinite peace.

The silver pendants are made from art clay. This is polymer clay with tiny particles of silver together with a non-toxic bonding agent and water. Once fired this becomes 99.9% pure silver.

Once the business takes off I will need people to help me make the silver pendants and then help put them all together.

I would like to employ stay-at-home mums as this would be something they could do from home part-time while the children are at school etc.

Your stars with Patrick Arundell

to guide you through the week ahead

Aries Mar 21-Apr 20
Mars and Jupiter square but this is not good for speculative schemes and especially those where you haven't really done your homework. Little niggles around a contract or a legal dispute can also be missed due to over confidence. If need be, seek out formal advice. In love, with Venus moving back into the hottest of zones, things can certainly huddle and bubble! Call for your love scope in full...

Libra Sept 24-Oct 23
Think back four or five weeks. Then a financial benefit seemed within your grasp, but then ebbed away. Now your cash flow and sense of security can improve. You may make some changes at home too, but these can have life changing consequences. Downsizing or deciding to start a small business, are both possible. Who you need to negotiate, and there is a real chance for you to improve your financial lot - as long as you don't get too caught up in spoiling loved ones. Best to try to stick within your Yule gift budget. Call for your financial forecast...

Taurus Apr 21-May 21
If someone seems possessive or the green eyed monster is stirred within you, take solace from the move of your ruler, the sweet Venus, into the most harmonizing of areas. There may be some compromising to do, but rather than focusing on small niggles, see what you will gain overall and the peace of mind that will come from this. Solo? Things look promising! Call now for your love scope...

Scorpio Oct 24-Nov 22
Venus rejoins you, and if there's been a sense of blurriness about what you should do about one complex involvement, this will help. This can also be an excellent week if you need to negotiate, and there is a real chance for you to improve your financial lot - as long as you don't get too caught up in spoiling loved ones. Best to try to stick within your Yule gift budget. Call for your financial forecast...

Gemini May 22-Jun 21
Cash issues require you to dig deep. Don't take anything you're told at face value. With Mars and Jupiter egging each other on, someone may exaggerate the value of an item you are looking to buy as a present, or not tell you the down side of a job they're offering. You can come across well in interviews, as long as you don't try too hard or make false claims. Call for your financial scope...

Sagittarius Nov 23-Dec 21
Your finances can revive. Yet with Venus slipping into the back of your horoscope, there may be some doubts around a romantic tie. With Mars and your ruler squaring, try not to be too impatient with a loved one's needs or thoughts. Brushing them off is not the basis for future happiness. So, if you're asked to slow down, and consider the bigger picture, try to do so. Call now for more news...

Cancer Jun 22-Jul 23
There could be a tendency to take on too much. You can be virtuous, but if you stretch yourself too much at what can be a very hectic time of year, the rivets will start to pop out. Do your bit, however, do not try to say no - if that's what suits you. With Venus and Mercury on the move, you can also find yourself feeling more in the mood for frivolity. Call me now for your in-depth forecast...

Capricorn Dec 22-Jan 20
There has been a lot going on in the background, and perhaps some self doubts in the back of your mind too. Someone may have proved to be less reliable than you'd believed. This is not a good week to say no - if that's what suits you. With Venus and Mercury making moves, those that you can count upon, really can come up trumps. Call for more news and advice...

Leo Jul 24-Aug 23
The Quarter Moon is potent and stirs up intensity in your love life, but then again, if you enjoy a bit of drama, you may be in your element. If you love games of love, proceed cautiously. If you like to socialize freely, a partner may want to exert more control, which can irritate. Your With Mercury shifting, small details count, so best not to let your gaze wander too much. Call for your love scope in full...

Aquarius Jan 21-Feb 19
You can demonstrate a more assured streak in business, but if you talk yourself or a scheme up, you need to be able to deliver. Yet, if you find it harder to push yourself forwards, why not show some devilment? In love, your pulse racing. Your imagination and very unusualness could prove captivating to this person, so be yourself! Call for your in-depth forecast...

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23
Your personal expression regains its sparkle, and with Mars and Jupiter squaring up this is no bad thing, helping you to hold back if someone close seems to be taking liberties. The issue at point, may be to do with family or home plans for Christmas. Yet with your ruler Mercury shifting, a slice of wit will work far better than handing out a trip crunching criticism. Call for more news and advice...

Pisces Feb 20-Mar 20
There could be a clash with someone at work if you refuse or find it hard to toe the party line. This can be tough for you, because to present if you can express your free spirit and will, all will be fine, but conforming to situations which you don't see the point of, can ruler Mercury shifting, a slice of wit will work far better than handing out a trip crunching criticism. # Action-packed Robin to make a merry Christmas

SPEND Christmas with Robin Hood and his band of Merry Men at the Victoria Hall Theatre in Old Harlow next week as the venue stages a thrilling new interpretation of a classic family adventure.

Written and directed by Paul Johnson and Keith Mardell – the team behind past Christmas shows Beauty & The Beast, Sleeping Beauty and The Snow Queen – this all-action tale follows a young Robin returning from the Crusades after fighting alongside Richard the Lionheart on the walls of Acre.

But his home county is now subject to the despotic rule of The Sheriff of Nottingham who, bearing a grudge from years past, soon declares Robin an outlaw and puts a high price on his head.

Determined to fight back, Robin enlists the help of Friar Tuck, Alan Dale, Little John and Will Scarlett to wage a war of attrition against the tyrant, raiding filthy-rich Norman nobles from his hideout in Sherwood Forest to give much-needed assistance to the common people of Nottingham.

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

But the Sheriff will do anything in his power to defeat his sworn enemy and when he captures Robin's lover, Lady Marion, the stage is set for a thrilling showdown.

Co-director Paul Johnson told the Star: "It's an idea I've been kicking around for a long time and with all the recent TV and film adaptations of the Robin Hood tale it seemed like too much of a coincidence to ignore.

"I've put my own slant on the story by giving more of a back story to the feud between Robin and the Sheriff of Nottingham, but the basic plot will be familiar to everyone.

"It's going to be an action-driven play with plenty of swordfights and derring-do, and the cast are having great fun in rehearsals.

"This is an adventure for all the family, with a cast of hugely talented local performers and a spectacular set. So come along and have a very Merry Christmas!"

The show opens on Thursday (December 9) and runs until Saturday, December 18. Evening performances start at 7.30pm and matinee shows on December 11, 12 and 18 begin at 3pm.

Amy wins a place at top ballet school

A HARLOW schoolgirl has pirouetted her way into one of Europe's top dance schools after wowing teaching staff at entrance auditions.

Amy Johanson (17) beat off competition from hundreds of applicants to secure her place on the BA course in professional Dance and Performance at London's world-renowned Central School for Ballet.

A former pupil of the Harlow Ballet Association, the Burnt Mill School student has been dancing since the age of four. She will now study choreography, singing and contextual studies as well as various different dance styles on the three-year course.

In her final year, Amy will join the school's touring company to perform at venues across the UK to get a taste of what it life is like for professional dancers.

CSB director Sara Matthews said: "We are the only vocational ballet school able to offer our students an honours degree and this level of touring experience.

"Ballet Central continues to be a springboard for hundreds of dancers into the top international dance companies. Dancers live to perform so touring is a much anticipated part of our three-year curriculum."

Supervillain finds being good isn't bad after all

new this week

MEGAMIND (3D) certificate PG 1h35m

SUPERMAN wouldn't be quite so super without scheming Lex Luthor, while Batman's cowl and utility belt would gather dust were it not for the maniacal Joker.

Good and evil live side by side, locked in a perpetual tug of war. Light or dark occasionally triumphs but invariably the balance of power shifts between them.

Directed by Tom McGrath, who previously made Madagascar and its sequel, Megamind is a fast-paced computer animated adventure that asks if a villain could become a hero when the entire world is pitted against him.

The role reversal taps into a rich vein of humour and screenwriters Alan J Schoolcraft and Brent Simons have fun plundering the conventions of the genre.

Megamind (voiced by Will Ferrell) is separated from his alien parents as a child and crash lands on Earth where he grows up in the Metro Prison For The Criminally Gifted. Surrounded by thieves, murderers and degenerates, he discovers his calling to be bad, sowing the seeds of a lifelong rivalry with dashing hunk Metro Man (Brad Pitt).

Miraculously, one of Megamind's elaborate plans comes to fruition and Metro Man is destroyed, allowing the villain and his loyal henchman, Minion (David Cross), to take charge of Metro City. But he soon grows bored when there is no-one to fight and creates a new hero, Titan (Jonah Hill), to battle against.

When Titan starts using his powers to destroy the world, it's left to Megamind to save the day for the first time in his life.

Megamind is a lively affair and makes good use of the 3D technology during the action sequences. Vocal performances are strong and Ferrell tugs at the heartstrings as the lead protagonist, who is tired of striking fear into everyone he meets.

Tom McGrath's film appropriates elements from Shrek and The Incredibles and produces an entertaining hybrid that should have parents chuckling with glee.

However, in a vintage year for dazzling, family-friendly animation led by Toy Story 3 and How To Train Your Dragon, McGrath's film lacks that special something to distinguish it from the crowd.

And with the focus on the unlikely romance and a noticeable absence of cute supporting characters, young audiences may quickly become bored out of their not-so-mega minds.

CHRONICLES OF NARNIA: VOYAGE OF THE DAWN TREADER (3D) certificate PG 1h52m

There's action and adventure aplenty on the high seas in the film version of the third book in CS Lewis's enchanting series.

Lucy (Georgie Henley) and Edmund (Skandar Keynes) are staying with their cousin Eustace Scrubb (Will Poulter) when a painting of a ship in the guest bedroom magically transports all three children to Narnia.

Eustace has never been before and is understandably confused but Lucy and Edmund settle in quickly, reuniting with King Caspian (Ben Barnes) and the talking mouse Reepicheep (voiced by Simon Pegg) aboard The Dawn Treader.

Caspian is on a quest to locate the seven lost Lords of Narnia and the Pevensie children gladly help the King, encountering the White Witch (Tilda Swinton) and the majestic lion Aslan (Liam Neeson) along the way.

>>also showing

>>UNSTOPPABLE In a Pennsylvania rail yard, Dewey (Ethan Suplee) foolishly jumps off a slow moving freight train in order to race ahead and change a set of points. Unfortunately, the throttle jars forward and the carriages speed down the line without a driver... or any air brakes. More worrying, the locomotive includes drums of a highly flammable liquid. Yardmaster Connie Hooper (Rosario Dawson) clears the entire line to prevent a head-on collision while further down the line veteran engineer Frank Barnes (Denzel Washington) and conductor Will Colson (Chris Pine) orchestrate a daring rescue plan to slow down the runaway train before it reaches the notorious Stanton curve.

>>LONDON BOULEVARD Colin Farrell stars as ex-con Mitchel who emerges from Pentonville Prison ready to make a fresh start. But lacking funds and a place to stay, he is soon sucked back into London's underbelly where his success on the streets soon catches the eye of ruthless crime boss Gant (Ray Winstone). Seeing Mitchel as a potentially valuable asset, Gant extends a lucrative job offer to him - only for it to be rebuffed in no uncertain terms. As Mitchel is soon to discover to his detriment, no-one turns down Gant.

>>HARRY POTTER AND THE DEATHLY HALLOWS: PART 1

Harry (Daniel Radcliffe), Ron (Rupert Grint) and Hermione (Emma Watson) face the renewed threat from Voldemort (Ralph Fiennes) and the Death Eaters. The nefarious Lord Voldemort and his followers continue to grow in power, threatening everything that Dumbledore (Michael Gambon) and his followers hold dear. With Hogwarts in disarray, Harry, Ron and Hermione embark on a perilous quest to track down the mysterious Horcruxes and stop the forces of darkness from taking a stranglehold over the wizarding world.

>>ANOTHER YEAR Another beautifully observed portrait of modern life from writer-director Mike Leigh, focusing on medical counsellor Gerri (Ruth Sheen), who is happily married to geologist Tom (Jim Broadbent). The couple looks forward to a cosy retirement but the only dark cloud on the horizon is Gerri's lonely work colleague Mary (Lesley Manville), who continually pops round to share her woes.

>>DESPICABLE ME When a criminal mastermind uses a trio of orphan girls as pawns for a grand scheme, he finds himself profoundly changed by the growing love between them.

>> bollywood

>>GOLMAAL 3 Part of India's first ever trilogy, Golmaal 3 tells the story of hatred among siblings within a family. This is a family that eats together, prays together, lives together and a family that can't stand each other.

>> movies for juniors

>>SHREK FOREVER AFTER Rumpelstiltskin tricks a mid-life crisis burdened Shrek into allowing himself to be erased from existence and cast in a dark alternate timeline where old Rumpel rules supreme.

>>TOY STORY 3 Woody and Buzz had always accepted that their owner Andy would grow up some day, but what happens when that day arrives? In the third film in the series, Andy is preparing to depart for college, leaving his loyal toys troubled about their uncertain future.

Pretty two-bed terrace with garage

coverproperty

Location Church Langley, Harlow

Category Two-bedroom terrace

Additional En suite to master bedroom, garage, downstairs cloakroom

Price £204,995

Agent Howick and Brooker, Gothic House, High Street, Old Harlow. Tel: (01279) 418888

OUR cover property this week is a pretty terraced house in Malkin Drive, off Lane End, in the newest part of the Church Langley development.

Built by Croudace Homes, it is in superb condition and has two double bedrooms. The property has been decorated well and in neutral colours so would provide a perfect home to move in to without the need to redecorate immediately.

There is a downstairs cloakroom and a lounge/diner which overlooks the back garden, with French doors opening out to a patio area.

The kitchen is well laid out with a range of fitted units

The master bedroom benefits from en suite facilities and there are fitted wardrobes in the second bedroom.

The back garden is westerly facing with established shrubs and a patio area. Most of the garden is laid to lawn and is secluded and fenced.

There is a garage to the rear of the house and parking at the front

Church Langley is a modern, self contained development with a local supermarket, GP surgery and schooling. Junction 7 of the M11 and the nearest British Rail mainline station are both about two miles away, so the location is perfect for commuters as well as providing good community living.

To arrange a viewing, call Howick & Brooker on (01279) 418888.

Available for £315,000

STANDING in a plot of approximately one third of an acre at Mark Hall Moors, Harlow, this spacious detached family home is on a corner plot with potential for further extension or redevelopment.

The house has three reception areas, three bedrooms and a hardwood conservatory.

The mature garden is fully enclosed with various lawned areas and an ornamental pond. The formal patio directly to the rear is very private with an outside tap and security lighting.

To the front there is a hard-standing for three vehicles and the attached garage has light and power. There is also gated access to the side carport with a detached workshop.

To book a viewing, call Intercounty on (01279) 639666.

Priced at £1,195,000

WITH its own detached three-bedroom barn conversion and grounds of 1.75 acres, this stunning period home might be suitable for two families.

Manwood House is in the hamlet of Manwood Green between Matching Green and Hatfield Heath. The property dates back to 1595 and has a wealth of period features.

The main house has six bedrooms, two bathrooms, a heated pool and office. The barn has a large drawing room, magnificent kitchen/family room, two bathrooms and a shower room.

Wright & Co in Sawbridgeworth has this property on its books. Call (01279) 600400 for further details.

WHETHER you want a house that you can move in to with nothing to do or like the idea of a refurbishment opportunity, we have some superb properties in and around Harlow this week.

Our cover property is a lovely two-bedroom home in Malkin Drive, Church Langley. With its easy access to London, shops, schools and GP surgery, it's easy to see why this modern development continues to grow in popularity.

If you have a large family and are looking for a property to share with older relatives, then Manwood House between Matching Green and Hatfield Heath might be just what you're looking for. With its own detached three-bedroom barn conversion as well as the main house, all set in 1.75 acres, there is plenty of room for everyone.

A three-bedroom home in Long Leys, off Maddox Road, is offered chain-free so if you want to move quickly then this could be for you.

These are just a few of the properties we have in Homes Now this week. There is a wealth of great homes out there with choices to cater for all budgets as well as rental properties in many good locations.

Offers in the region of £180,000 - £190,000

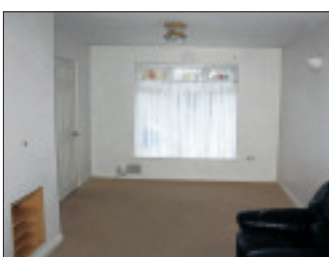

OFFERED for sale chain-free and within reach of the town centre, this three bedroom home in Long Ley, Harlow, is well worth a closer look.

Extended and much improved, the end-of-terrace property has a refitted kitchen. There is a double glazed window and double glazed French doors to the rear, while fitted appliances include a dishwasher, microwave and coffee machine.

Outside, the garden is enclosed with panel fencing. There is a decked area while the remainder is laid to lawn.

Long Ley is located off Maddox Road.

Haart has full details on (01279) 443311.

On the market for £171,950

"VIEWING recommended" is a much-used phrase but in this case it's certainly well worth it.

This two-bedroom home in Jerounds, one of Harlow's most desired locations, is in tip-top condition and beautifully decorated.

There is a large conservatory and the back garden has a good sized lawn with established shrubs and borders. There is also a patio area and side access.

The property is fully double glazed and centrally heated.

To arrange a viewing or for further details, call Sapphire Group on (01279) 408688.

CO & CO ESTATE AGENTS

AYTHORPE RODING £1,195,000
4 bedroom, 2 bathroom, Grade II listed, 17th century traditional Essex barn which is in immaculate condition throughout with the current owners having made brand new additions to an already stunning property. Situated on approx. 3 acre plot with fabulous open views. In addition to the barn, there is also a large out building ideal for conversion to an annexe. Double garage, with a spacious gravel driveway offering ample parking.

BISHOPS STORTFORD £269,995
3 bedroom semi detached family home situated on a secluded corner plot and offers good size accommodation. Comprising of entrance hallway, good size lounge/diner, fitted kitchen (which is less than 2 years old), ground floor cloakroom (again this is less than 2 years old), family bathroom, well presented gardens, single detached garage and private driveway giving off road parking for 1 vehicle. There is scope for an extension subject to planning permission.

HENHAM £324,995
4 bedroom, detached family home, greatly improved by the current owners and located in the attractive village of Henham. The appealing interior accommodation comprises of a lounge, dining room, kitchen, new utility room extension and conservatory. With downstairs family bathroom and good size bedrooms (one downstairs). To the rear, is a well presented garden and open farmland views, and to the front, a detached garage with off road parking for 4 vehicles.

BISHOPS STORTFORD £144,995
1 bedroom apartment which has been completely refurbished by the current owner to a high standard. Consisting of lounge/diner, kitchen, bathroom and the good sized bedroom with the added benefit of an allocated parking space outside. Located only a short walk to the town centre and train station, the property is ready to move into, making it ideal for investment or a first time buyer.

It's time for California dreaming

By Matt Joy

IF the past five years has taught us anything it's that a change in the law, even if it's just taxation, will have a profound effect on buyers.

And if buyers decide they want something different, any car manufacturer choosing not to oblige won't be around long enough to explain why.

The perfect example is the change to Vehicle Excise Duty rates. Suddenly all the mainstream car manufacturers have low CO<sub>2</sub> cars which are miraculously capable of diving under the magic 100g/km barrier. Result: happy buyers but not so happy tax man.

Surely this doesn't apply to sellers of dreams like Ferrari? According to the rule makers it does. Just like everyone else, Ferrari has targets to meet and even if its typical buyers aren't quite so concerned about scraping under the 100g/km barrier, a small saving would be welcomed.

Which is why this looks just like any Ferrari California. Very low and rakish from the nose, the bodywork flowing over the elegant wheels and up over the cabin. The bustle-back rear ends with a neat tail and hides the extra space required to stow the folding roof without much in the way of compromise. Modern and yet with carefully contrived nods to the past, the California has presence and beauty just like a good Ferrari should.

It also lacks nothing in terms of motive power. Underneath the shark-like nose lies a revised 4.3-litre V8 which in best Ferrari tradition revs to the stars – maximum power is produced at 7,750rpm – and with 460bhp on offer this is nothing less than a full-on Ferrari.

Better yet, the California gets the latest in Ferrari transmissions with a seven-speed dual clutch offering with F1 style paddles of course.

But the big difference is that this is the first Ferrari to get stop/start technology, the same kind of thing that eco-hatches have but inevitably with Ferrari sophistication. It's also worth bearing in mind that keeping a high-revving, monster output V8 engine happy when stopping and starting like this is a little more challenging than in your average city car, but the California can do it seamlessly.

The result is spectacular, with the California now capable of emitting just 270g/km, the same as some diesel SUVs.

This is a 2+2 with a folding roof, so although the rear seats are for the committed, dropping the roof takes a matter of seconds yet provides proper security and comfort when in place.

The cabin also contributes greatly to the lack of unwanted drama. This is a simple cabin that is easy to operate and understand, requiring little effort from the driver and there's no need for the passenger to keep their ears shut on the move.

It seems absurd to say so, but the California is the most comfortable and relaxing car to drive to come from Ferrari in some time. Long motorway journeys are simply despatched and the sensitive steering settles down when on the move, requiring nothing more than a steady hand.

Noise levels also fade away at a cruise and the ride quality is impressive given the obvious tautness of the suspension.

Surely Ferrari hasn't gone all soft then? Not a bit of it. Start flicking the paddles and using all the revs, and the California displays all of the breeding that the prancing horse is famous for. The engine climbs beautifully through the rev range with serious shove even from low revs combined with a devastating blare from the exhaust.

The rapid-fire transmission makes it a cinch to keep the engine in the best part of the rev range, and the paddle shifters mean you can keep both hands on the wheel.

Despite the brutality of the performance, the handling and steering are delicately balanced, responding best to metered inputs and a smooth, considered approach. As with other Ferraris, the manettino switch allows the driver to tune the stability control and gearbox settings to suit the conditions and their skills, which means the California can be enjoyed more of the time.

This is a car to be enjoyed after all, and it certainly comes with all the right ingredients for a pleasurable drive. But a scything cut in emission levels allows the driver to enjoy it even more, knowing that even this six-figure supercar is cleaner and greener than before.

Few rivals can claim such an impressive range of talents.

Scrap

Driver and Vehicle
Licensing Agency

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

BERR

End of the road? Get over it and move on with your local ATF:

B & T Motor Salvage

We offer free collection, on the same day if necessary, using our own recovery vehicles and issue a Certificate of Destruction from the Department of Vehicle Licensing Authority via our direct link to their website. Payment per vehicle negotiable.

Call Adrian or Liam on 01707 391333

ATF permit number 80638

CAR RECYCLING

Stalemate for tennis team

THE Harlow LTC veterans team drew 2-2 at Woodford Wells in the Essex Men's Tennis League.

Will Calvert, Bob Barnett, Peter Gregory and Fred Lloyd competed in near freezing conditions.

The court was a challenge in itself as it was very icy in places which made conditions under foot very slippery.

In addition strong sunshine from one end of the court made it difficult to pick up the flight of the ball.

The first set of matches began with Calvert and Barnett comfortably beating the Woodford Wells 2nd pairing 10-2.

Gregory and Lloyd lost to the 1st pairing 3-10.

In the second round of matches Calvert and Barnett again won their rubber against the Woodford Wells 1st pairing (10-4).

But Gregory and Lloyd lost 10-7 against the Woodford 2nd pairing as the hosts fought back for a share of the spoils.

Biggest freeze since 1985 hits local sport

THE big freeze left local sport the biggest loser as hundreds of matches were off due to frozen pitches.

Reportedly the coldest November since 1985, the icy conditions put paid to both Harlow Hockey Club's first team weekend matches.

But football was the biggest victim.

The Hawks saw Tuesday's Ryman League division one north trip to Leyton postponed due to a frozen pitch.

Youth football was completely wiped out as organisers could not risk youngsters playing on pitches which were frozen solid. Meanwhile, not a single match took place in the Harlow & District Sunday League.

It had been slightly better on Saturday as seven of 12 scheduled games in the Footprint Bishop's Stortford, Stansted & District League took place.

Harlow Town Football Club's match against Waltham Abbey went ahead, while the Rams were able to hold a friendly.

But with more snow expected over the next fortnight there could be more disruption to sport across the region in December and beyond.

Panthers leave
Hawks in a flap

THERE was more National Founders Cup misery as a depleted Hawks – with only seven players – lost in Norwich on Saturday.

Having beaten University of East Anglia Panthers in the opening group game, Hawks were hoping to finish off a miserable month of fixtures on a high.

Russ Allan opened the scoring for Harlow immediately following the tip-off, but Panthers then scored eight unanswered points.

Hawks then stepped up their defence before they got the ball inside to Simon Atkinson and Mark Haddow for scores to regain the lead.

The teams then traded baskets but Panthers edged into the lead 15-13 before the first break.

Hawks dominated the opening minutes of the second quarter, getting the ball into Simon Atkinson and he used his size for numerous scores.

But, Panthers hit back with a series of fast break scores to regain the lead.

Hawks were unable to take advantage of free-throws yet again (missing a total of 14 in all).

However, the visitors finished the quarter stronger behind scores from Shab Niaz to leave them trailing 33-32 at half-time.

Once again Hawks started well with a score from Allan followed by a deep three-pointer from Niaz to take the lead, but like the first half Panthers responded with a 10-2 run.

Hawks dug in on defence while Allan and Simon Atkinson provided the offensive scores to get Hawks back in the game.

Efforts from Ayo Oyerinde and Haddow levelled the match at 49-49 going into the final minute of the third quarter.

Turnovers enabled Panthers to capitalise and go into the final break with a 55-50 lead.

The Norfolk side extended their lead in the first few minutes of the quarter.

Hawks' only scores in the first five minutes of the quarter came via the free-throw line where they hit five of six, their best stretch from the line.

Ultimately the match was lost in the ensuing four minutes as turnovers and bad decisions gave Panthers a number of easy fast break points for a 20-5 run.

time here at the club and have made a great many friends and I shall miss the day-to-day interaction with a great membership.

"All good things must come to an end and change is inevitable so I look forward to my new life in Devon and my new challenge ahead."

Club captain Alan Howick paid tribute to McGinn. "I've known him for 17 years and have had many lessons with him. My abiding memory is spending too much money in his shop," he joked.

"He's a great guy and has done a lot for the club. He did a difficult job organising the proams. He was a very good coach and understood the game well. He's gone back to the West Country to be near his family. The club would like to thank him for all he's done."

McGinn came to the club from Hadley Wood GC near Barnet, where he was assistant professional.

He went on to become captain of the Essex county team.

Aside from the golf club, McGinn will undoubtedly miss his beloved Spurs. "He was a great Spurs fan – and Torquay United!" added Howick.

McGinn will be replaced by Mark Smith. The Harlow-based coach was assistant professional at Canons Brook under McGinn a few years ago before taking up a coaching role at North Weald.

conversion, Harlow's lead looked increasingly fragile especially when the visitors scored a second converted try.

Stortford captain and full-back, Oliver Stigwood, touched down.

This stung Harlow into action and they attacked for most of the remainder of the game.

With a few minutes remaining hooker James Lewis scored the matchwinning try. Dobson converted to wrap up the scoring.

The Rams will hope this will give the first team a confidence boost ahead of Saturday's home league match against Romford & Gidea Park.

Jeff's top shot

JEFF Etherington's 154 outshot in Servo Link's 6-2 win over Stow Snooker Club took him top of the highest finishers in the Harlow & District Premier Darts League.

He beat Dave Baker's previous best of 151.

Neil McKnight's 119 outshot for TwoPoundAPint was the bright spot as his team lost 2-6 at home to White Admiral.

Steve Quinton notched a 180 for Golden Swifts in their 6-2 win over Tye Green Foxes.

Staple Tye Colts won 7-1 at Crusader.

Tye Green Whites were held 4-4 by Moot House, while Small Copper and Colt Hatch shared the points in a 4-4 draw.

Girls' Eastern promise

SIX Harlow athletes braved temperatures of minus 2 degrees in the Eastern Cross Country Championships at Colchester last Sunday.

The Under-13 girls team secured a set of bronze medals. They were just seven points behind the gold medalists.

Alicia McArdell placed 7th over the 3km course in 12 minutes and 52 seconds.

Jodi Ratcliff was 9th in 13:14 and Rosie Poole came 10th in 13:16. Pride of place went to Richard Holland who won the Over-50s race over 12km in 39:43.

Cross country

Holland, representing Woodford, was 7th in the senior race.

In the U-15 girls race, Harlow Athletic Club member Isobel Moss ran 4km for 8th in 16:16, two minutes faster than her time last year.

Perry Rowan was 7th in the U-15 boys 4km race in 13:39.

At Woodford, Harlow's Ben Patterson came 4th in an U-13 boys race over 3km in the Chingford Cross Country League.

Silver surfer Mason notches Essex county qualifying time

Swimming

HARLOW Penguins achieved medal places and numerous personal bests at the Epping Forest District Swimming Club Gala at Loughton Pool.

A star performance from Mason Arnold (12) resulted in three silvers and an Essex County qualifying time in the 50m freestyle (31.00 seconds).

He also clocked personal bests (PBs) in the 100m individual medley (IM) in 1:18.71 and in the 50m butterfly (35.62s).

Bradley Veitch (11) was second in his 50m breaststroke race, while Luke Guerrati was runner-up in the 200m IM and the 50m butterfly. He achieved PBs in the 50m freestyle (31.56s) and 50m breaststroke (42.62s).

John Reynolds (15) recorded PBs in the 100m IM (1:11.66), 50m breaststroke (38.09s) and 50m backstroke (33.65s).

Danny Chan (15) had a great 50m butterfly in a PB of 31.89s.

His brother Joel Chan (13) enjoyed PBs in the 50m butterfly (40.91s) and 50m freestyle (37.82s).

Filip Kusnir (10) gained a bronze medal in the 100m IM (1:44.47) and narrowly missed out on a second with 4th place in the 50m breaststroke.

Saul Lintonbon-Baker (10) swam brilliantly, achieving super-fast PBs in all his races – 50m breaststroke (56.32s), 50m backstroke (49.96s) and 50m freestyle (43.26s).

Tomas Clark (10) also gained PBs in his two races – 50m freestyle (46.70s) and 50m breaststroke (1:01.01).

Harlow Penguins' girls were also on form, including Amy Edwards (12) who secured bronze medals in the 50m breaststroke and 50m freestyle (PB, 34.22s). She also beat her previous best in the 50m butterfly (43.02s) and 50m backstroke (40.71s).

Emily Poolman (10) achieved a silver medal in the first race of the gala, the 200m IM. She clocked a PB of 3:43.53, and just missed medal places coming 4th in the 50m freestyle and 100m IM.

Celeste Andrew (9) swam excellently in a tough age group, smashing her PBs in the 50m freestyle (41.75s), 50m breaststroke (55.13s) and 50m backstroke (48.90s).

Her sister Georgia Andrew (14) gained a PB in the 100m IM (1:23.33) and the 50m freestyle (33.13s).

Ellie Dee (10) recorded PBs in the 50m breaststroke (52.91s) and 50m butterfly (57.14s), as did Jasmine Hind (13) in the 100m IM (1:21.68) and 50m butterfly (38.03s) to complete a memorable day for the Harlow leisurezone-based club.

Jamie and the magic time

Running

JAMIE Jephcott recorded a brilliant personal best time at the Chelmsford 10km road race.

The Harlow Running Club member was 51st place out of over 490 runners in a great time of 38 minutes and 49 seconds.

He was closely followed home by Adrian Fell in 82nd place in 40:37.

Meanwhile at the Frimley Park, near Guildford, Harlow's Alison Rayman completed the 5km course in a creditable 26:58. This was her debut at this distance.

Ex-Hawks shine as Abbey inflict fifth league loss

KEVIN Warren will be left scratching his head at how side can perform so well in the FA Trophy, but so dramatically in the league.

Saturday's loss against close neighbours Waltham Abbey was Harlow Town's fifth successive league defeat and has left the Hawks facing a real fight to ignite their floundering play-off hopes.

Harlow's makeshift defence looked shaky in the first half and conceded two early goals at Barrows Farm.

Abbey, managed by Harlow's former reserve team manager Paul Wickenden, contained three ex-Hawks who were clearly fired up for this match.

Striker Emmanuel Osei was bombed out of Harlow after a disagreement with then boss Marvin Samuel in January.

He was joined in the Abbey side by winger Louis Bristow and midfielder and ex-Hawks skipper Ryan Maxwell.

Harlow were desperately missing suspended left-back Sacha Opinel and injured right-back Donny Barnard, while skipper and centre-half Leo Roget was named on the bench despite carrying an injury after Jon Stevenson quit the club for Ryman rivals Enfield Town.

Midfielder Tom Bruno was put at right-back, while player-coach Christian Wheeler filled in at centre-half.

Abbey took the lead on eight minutes when a right-wing cross found Bristow completely unmarked inside the box, who tucked a shot across goal and into the far bottom right corner.

Bruno had sustained a foot injury and he was struggling when the visitors scored their second on 23 minutes.

Abbey captain Steve Cawley somehow flicked the ball over his head from on the by-line. It clipped the inside of the left post before creeping in.

Roget replaced Bruno and the Harlow back line improved on his arrival as Wheeler switched to right-back.

Harlow were unlucky not to score when Roget's header was fumbled by Abbey keeper Harry Ricketts, but was eventually cleared.

After the break a mistake from keeper Rhys Madden ended with Keiron Ogunkoya nodding over from close range.

The game burst into life near the hour mark as James Peagram forced a great save from Ricketts while moments later Che Stadhart wasted a gilt-edged chance when he shot straight at the keeper.

This was sandwiched between a great chance for Osei who fired wide with just the keeper to beat.

Danny Brown's great through ball set sub Andre Modeste-Humphrey clear and he stormed into the box on 78 minutes only to chip wide with the goal at his mercy.

Harlow finally scored on 90 minutes when Dave Cowley's free-kick was headed into the bottom left corner by sub Ben Bradbury.

But there was no time for Harlow to grab an equaliser.

Warren said: "We had the chances to get something from the game but don't take chances, you don't win games."

"Roget did well but he is now out as his knee has got worse."

HARLOW TN: Madden 6, Bruno 3 (Roget 25, 6), Barnes 5, WHEELER 7, Stewart 4, Brown 4, Cowley 4, Hunter 4 (Bradbury 80), Stadhart 4 (Modeste-Humphrey 70, 5), Peagram 5, Akers 6. Subs not used: Stevens, Hasell (gk). Att: 210. Yellow cards: Stewart (foul), Akers (foul).

Rockets name Harlow flyer for 2011 campaign

LUKE Bowen will be aiming for an injury-free run after Rye House Rockets promoter Len Silver named him in his side for the 2011 Premier League speedway season.

Harlow-based Bowen, a former Mark Hall School student, sat out most of the 2010 campaign after suffering a broken arm in a meeting in June.

The Harlow flyer has far better memories of the previous year, when a near seven point average netted a second straight 'Mr Rocket' Rider of the Year award.

Silver said: "Luke's making excellent progress and will be riding motorcross over the winter to keep himself in shape."

"Assuming he's okay he'll definitely be starting for us next season."

Former Rocket Steve Boxall, British under-21 champion Ritchie Hawkins and exciting Australian newcomer Tyson Nelson are the new faces in the Rye House team for the 2011 campaign.

Highly-rated Nelson, just 17, is from Gosford in New South Wales.

Jordan Frampton, Chris Neath and Ben Morley all return from last season's squad. With Sundstrom departing for the Elite League, Frampton will take the number one berth for his second season at Hoddesdon.

Frampton weighed in with over 350 race points, statistics that would have been higher but for the knee injury that saw him sidelined for seven weeks.

The 25 year-old also reached both the British and Premier League Riders Finals.

Neath will start his eighth season at Rye House, and despite a misfiring first half of the campaign will be keen to build on his tremendous conclusion to 2010.

The Rockets' captain closed out the campaign with four straight home maximums – five in six matches – and solid scores on the road.

Morley, who will be 17 next March, captured this year's Mr Cobra Rider of the Year plaudit, and contributed points in all five of his Young Shield appearances for the Rockets.

Boxall will return to his original stamping ground after a three-year absence.

He captured the Conference League Riders Championship as a 2005 Raider, also marching onto the World U-21 semi-finals, was voted the Rockets' Rider of the Year in 2006 and was an important cog in Rye's 2007 Premier League Championship machine.

Hawkins joins the Rockets on loan from Somerset. The 26 year-old shook off his previous injury problems in 2010 by contributing a 6.50 full average and nearly 300 points to the Rebels' cause.

Crowned the 2004 British U-21 Champion when the event was staged at Rye House, he has also ridden for Worthington, Berwick, Sheffield and Scunthorpe among others.

The Rockets will compete in an expanded Premier League, including two new teams – Ipswich and Leicester – in the 2011 competition.

Each team will race 19 home and 19 away fixtures.

The Premier Trophy and Young Shield competitions have been dropped for 2011.

Rockets have been drawn against holders Newcastle in the first round of the Knockout Cup.

The two sides will meet at Brough Park in the first leg on Easter Sunday (April 25), with the deciding leg set at Hoddesdon the following afternoon.

Rams awarded walkover

THE Rams received a walkover in the Essex Cup first round when scheduled opponents South Woodham Ferrers were unable to raise a side on Saturday.

Harlow Rugby Club instead played a friendly against a Stortford second team, which the Rams won 17-14.

The mixture of first and second team players combined well against close neighbours Stortford.

Harlow grabbed the win with a try in the final few minutes of the match.

The Rams had to defend well at times in a match that was very much end-to-end.

Harlow took the lead when they forced a five-metre scrum and scrum-half Charlie Woodington made a break down the blindside and found Josh Drake. His pass to the wing released fly-half Michael Dobson, who powered his way over the line.

Harlow extended their lead with a second try. Prop Paul Prindiville crashed over as he peeled off the back of a rolling maul.

Neither try was converted and Harlow led 10-0 at the break.

In the second half Stortford worked hard to keep possession and were rewarded with a try from second row Gareth Abbott, who burst through to touch down.

'Forget Trophy and halt winless league run'

By ALAN SCOTT

HAWKS keeper Rhys Madden has told his team-mates to forget about the FA Trophy first-round tie against former winners Woking - and get their league campaign back on track!

It has certainly been a November to forget as Kevin Warren's men lost five successive Ryman division one north games to derail their title chances. They were top at the start of the month.

The Hawks now face two tough away games in the space of four days. On Saturday they visit play-off chasing Thamesmead Town, before a trip to Brentwood Town (who beat them 4-0 at Barrows Farm a fortnight ago) on Tuesday.

Harlow will host Blue Square Bet South Woking on December 11 after causing upsets against three premier division sides.

But Warren's men look a totally different side in the league, where they are struggling for form and confidence.

Madden said: "We have two league games before we can then think about the Trophy game. We have to look forward instead of looking back."

The custodian won the Ryman League's Safe Hands Award after four clean sheets in October, but admits that run seems a long way in the past now.

"If anything we should draw confidence from the Trophy. We have beaten teams from higher leagues in every round so far," he said.

Madden was desperately disappointed with Saturday's 2-1 loss against Waltham Abbey.

He said: "They were two sloppy goals for us to concede. We keep giving ourselves mountains to climb. We have to cut out the silly mistakes. We are our own worse enemy at the moment. November has been a month to forget.

"This is just a big blip and we have got to get ourselves out of it. We just need that one win. We have got the players. We are good enough."

Harlow's form has certainly not been helped by injuries to key players. The loss of Danny Brown, Clark Akers and Donny Barnard has been very costly.

Opinel must sit out three more games of a five-match ban.

Right-back Barnard (knee ligament) has been out for two weeks but could return this Saturday.

Loan signing Tom Bruno (foot injury) could also return, along with midfielders Getro Kilapi (knee) and Steve Ferguson (thigh). However, skipper Leo Roget (knee cartilage problem) needs an operation and could be out for the next few months.

Utility player Jon Stevenson would have been useful - but he has joined Enfield Town!

This prompted Warren to move into the transfer market once more.

He hopes to bring in a centre-half from a Blue Square South club for this Saturday, plus a right-back from a Ryman division one north side.

The Hawks boss has also made a seven-day approach for a forward from a Ryman division one north side but he will not be signed in time for Saturday's trip to London.

End of an era for Canons Brook

IT'S the end of an era at Harlow's Canons Brook Golf Club after head professional Alan McGinn stepped down after 17 years in the driving seat! The 52 year-old Torquay-born golfer, right, first took up the reins at the Elizabeth Way club in 1993 and has passed on his wisdom and advice to hundreds of Harlow golfers over those years. In a complete career change for McGinn, he has returned 'back home' to Devon and will run a bed and breakfast in Exeter. He will also pursue exams as he hopes to become a financial advisor as he swaps tees for the FT! A leaving party was held at Canons

Brook on Saturday when members said their goodbyes to the popular coach. McGinn said: "In my time here I have witnessed many changes, in the club and in the game of golf, some for better and some not. But it's the enjoyment and variety of this great game that keeps us all going. "I have had a great >>Cont'd on page 78
